Jane M. Klausman

Women in Business Scholarships

A Zonta International Program, Funded through the Zonta International Foundation

General Information

The Zonta International Foundation awarded the first Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships in 1998 to women pursuing degrees in business leading to a business management career. This program was established from a bequest by Jane M. Klausman, a member of the Zonta Club of Syracuse, New York, USA, and the 1990-1995 Zonta International Parliamentarian. During her career, Ms. Klausman was a professional secretary, parliamentarian and entrepreneur.

The Scholarship

The Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships are awarded to women undertaking business studies who have demonstrated outstanding potential in the field.

Who is Eligible?

Women of any age, pursuing a business or business-related program who demonstrate outstanding potential in the field and are living or studying in a Zonta district/region, are eligible.

What are the Requirements?

Applicants must meet the following minimum requirements:

- Be undertaking a business and/or business-related program at an accredited university/college/institute.
- Enrolled in at least the second year of an undergraduate program through the final year of a Master's Program at the time the application is submitted (applicants must still be attending school to receive this Award).
- Achieved an outstanding academic record during her academic studies, including business-related subjects.
- Demonstrated initiative, ambition and commitment to pursuing a career in business.

How Do I Apply?

Complete an official application in English. Please note that only typed applications will be accepted and considered. Applications can be downloaded from the Zonta International website, (www.zonta.org) and must include:

1. One recommendation from a faculty member in the major field of study.
2. One recommendation from an employer, volunteer supervisor, or academic advisor.
3. An essay in 500 words or less that clearly describes your academic and professional goals, the relevance of your program to the business field, and how the Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship will assist you in reaching your goals.
4. Verification of enrollment from the university/college/institute registrar.
5. Transcripts of grades or equivalent records for all universities, colleges, or institutes, with an explanation of the grading system for each transcript submitted.
6. All non-English documents must be translated in English.
- 7. All application materials must be received at the Zonta club by the deadline printed on the application.
8. Articles, pamphlets, books, curriculum vitae or other publications are not requested and will not be considered.
9. Applications that are incomplete or late due to postal delays, transmittal by third parties, or other circumstances will not be considered. Applications are accepted by email or regular mail; however, email submissions are preferred. Applications submitted by email must be signed and sent as a PDF.

What is the Application Process?

The Club Evaluation Committee will consider applications and select the club awardee. Applications selected by Zonta clubs are sent to their respective Zonta governors/regional representative. A district/region evaluation committee selects one applicant per district/region to submit to Zonta International Headquarters. The Zonta International Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship Committee selects 12 international recipients from the district/region applicants.

How may I use the Scholarship Funds?

1. The scholarship may be used for any expenses that support the achievement of a degree in a business related field.
2. For domestic and foreign recipients studying in the United States, scholarship funds used for tuition, books, fees, supplies or required equipment for the program of study are not considered taxable income. Withholding taxes may be required on funds used for living expenses or other non-qualified expenses.
3. Recipients are not permitted to defer the Scholarship. Zonta International will consider a new application the following year, but no preferential consideration will be given to the second application.
4. Recipients may accept additional grants and scholarships from other sources.
